

Biography
Sally Ann Elder, UUCWI Chaplain

“I see chaplaincy as a sharing of life's journey; an accompanying through whatever imprisons, frustrates, infuriates, or causes pain or joy.”

CURRENT ACTIVITIES:

- Officiates local weddings/funerals
- Assists in UUCWI Religious Exploration
- Serves as a volunteer Hospital Chaplain, Whidbey General
- Facilitates UUCWI's North End Study Group

EDUCATION:

- MATS (Master of Arts in Theological Studies) Texas Christian University, 1994
- Clinical Pastoral Education: Fort Logan Mental Hospital, Denver and All Saints General, Ft. Worth
- Certification in Quaker Alternatives to Violence prison program 1995

HISTORY:

- Taught in Alternative High School, WA state 1999-2009
- Participated in educational/spiritual explorations in Israel, Jordan, and Scotland
- Taught on Arapaho Wind River Indian Reservation, Wyoming
- Facilitated Quaker Alternatives to Violence Programs in Wyoming Prisons
- Provided National Parks Ministry in Glacier National Park, AK
- Served as Pastor of Paradise Christian Church in Paradise TX during seminary